Erme Valley RDA - Peggy Douglas

As the winter progresses we appeal once more for Volunteers to help with a multitude of tasks! We're not just looking for helpers for our Riders and Horses - but for those who might turn their hand to tack cleaning, painting, DIY in its many forms or just plain tidying. Please contact me on 07882 286421 if you are able to help.

And so our Thirtieth Year commences - and we are planning many special events.

Two dates for you diaries:

May 8th; when we host an evening at the Delamore Art Exhibition at Cornwood.
May 9th, when the Military Wives will be singing for us in concert.

Watch this space for details.....

Beacon Federation Governors- Vacancy for a Co-opted Governor

Sue Roberts, Chair of Governors

The Governors are responsible for the strategic direction of the Federation's schools and are passionate about ensuring that every child has the best possible experience during their primary schooling. We are looking for someone who shares this vision and can contribute towards the continuing development of the Federation. Experience of property and site management, public relations, ICT and marketing would be particularly useful but not essential.

Governors meet monthly, serve for a 4-year term and can be parents of children at the Federation's schools or members of the wider community. They do need to be able to visit the schools during the day from time to time.

If you would like to find out more about being a governor or to discuss this informally with one of us please contact the school office at:

Ermington (01548 830459) or Ugborough (01752 8924890) or email admin@ermington.devon.sch.uk before Friday 13th February.

The Beacon Federation - Executive Headteacher - Mrs. Jane Byrne

Ugborough Primary School.

We said au revoir to Mrs French who is on maternity leave and hello to Mrs Westworth who joins the Federation as SENCO while Mrs French is away. We also welcome two new Teaching Assistants to our team, Mr Hill-Smith and Mrs Timothy, and a new teaching student, Miss Golding, in Year 5/6.

Can we appeal to parents to park sensibly whilst dropping off/collecting children and be mindful of our neighbours? Please park in the Square and walk up to school.

For this year's music concerts at the Watermark Centre in Ivybridge, Earlscombe class, together with musicians from Year 4, will represent the school in the production "Raise My Voice" on 24th and 25th March. Further information on tickets sales etc will be published soon - watch this space!

A reminder that Friday 13th February is a Non Pupil Day and 16th - 20th February is Half Term.

The car parking congestion at the junction of Lutterburn St/Undertown

(an Undertown Resident, name supplied).

On 10th January, the refuse collection lorry was unable to access Undertown resulting in inconvenience to the council, and residents not getting their bins emptied. This in itself may not seem to be of overly great importance to the car owners involved but of greater importance is the free and urgent access which may be required by fire and ambulance services, both of which have been required by Undertown residents in recent years. It would be appreciated if car owners could bear this in mind when parking vehicles at this junction.

Ugborough Parish Walking Group - Merry! Docker

The first walk of this year happens to fall on 1st February! We will meet as usual in the Square at 10.45am for kick off at 11.00am. The first snowdrops have already been spotted and lambs have been heard bleating. Come with us on a gentle stroll around our beautiful parish to see more signs that Spring is round the corner. It is there right under our feet if we spend the time to look. Everyone will be made very welcome with your 4 legged friend too. For more information about the Parish Rights of Way please contact Merry Docker (01752 893651) or Tom Holway (01752 941872). See you soon.

Mary's Coffee Morning - Wednesday 4th March - In aid of the Church.

I can't quite believe that it's time to start advertising the Coffee Morning. Christmas seems months ago and I am already thinking about the daffodils that are usually out by the time of this coffee morning.

Once again this event will be held at Oakenham, opposite Hillhead Farm at the top of the hill, in memory of my granny who lived here and ran the same coffee morning on the first Wednesday in March every year. Please come along for tea, coffee and homemade biscuits, as well as a cake and plant stall. There is parking at the house or in the farmyard. Shelley Hutcheon 07720765014

Ugborough Fair 2015

The first meeting of the year is coming up and we would love to see some new members to help this now historic and important event in the village. We have an amazing new committee who have all been through the planning of this event once and are full of ideas to make this year's even better. It would be just a little bit easier with a few more volunteers and a Secretary! If you could spare just a few hours to help run one of the events or could take on the role of Secretary, please contact Shelley on 07720765014 or email at shelley@oakenham.com

Rainfall at Shellwood Hill George Arnison

Below is my rainfall chart for December 2014 where I've recorded 91.5mm (3.6") at Shellwood Hill. For comparison, the previous four Decembers have given 237.5mm (2013); 327.0mm (2012) 165.5mm (2011) and 54mm (2010).

Also below is a chart summarising monthly rainfall at Shellwood Hill for the whole of 2014 - for which I've recorded a total of 1615mm (63.6") - compared with 1441mm (2013), 1990mm (2012); 1125mm (2011); and 1112mm (2010).

It's been another year of weather extremes nationally: according to the Met Office last winter (Dec'13 to Feb'14) was the wettest since records began (which was in 1910 for the UK and 1766 for England!) and the stormiest for several decades, possibly much longer. By contrast, September was the driest across the UK since records began in 1910 (and one of the warmest).

Ugborough Sustainable Saturdays has some exciting events lined up for 2014! One of them will be a series of four seasonal Potluck Dinners. Bring along your creation and recipe to the Village Hall on 28th February at 6 p.m. for the first event. The recipes will be collected and published as part of our very own USS cook book and your creations will obviously be enjoyed by us all. Please email or call Charlott to get your free tickets ugboroughss@gmail.com or 07730767694

For locally produced foods, crafts and cafe, Sustainable Saturdays dates for February are February 7th and 21st from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Ugborough Village Hall- Stafford Williams

Thanks go to the donation from the Victorian Fayre run by Shelley and Philomena - the Hall needs all the income it can get so such effort is gratefully received. On that note there are some users who are tardy in paying, often because the fee is quite small. Rather than feel guilty please try and pay before events to avoid any embarrassment and to reduce the chance of us having to put up prices.

There have been a few problems with the website booking system recently so please confirm that your booking is completed using text to Philomena's mobile number (07866 518333).

Users of the Hall may wish to publicise their activities through this newsletter, but it is difficult for the Hall Committee to speak on your behalf. Please contact Norma Roe (editor) directly if you want folk to know about your events.

There has been a change to food labelling regulations and anyone serving food from the Village Hall needs to be aware of the details. If you provide meals onsite you will need to write on your menus and any display board the relevant allergens if they are included - further information is at

<http://www.food.gov.uk/sites/default/files/multimedia/pdfs/maycontainguide.pdf>

Ugborough Local History Group- Merryl Docker

Do join us on Wednesday 25th February at 8 p.m. in Ugborough Village Hall when a very good friend of the History Group Gordon Partridge (retired Lighthouse Keeper) will be regaling his own family history with an illustrated talk on "My family and fishing in Brixham". Learn more about the fascinating history of fishing in Brixham with Gordon who no doubt has many fascinating tales to share with us.

Members free, non-members very welcome at just £2 on the door. For more information about the History Group please contact Merryl on 01752 893651

Old Hips Party Maureen Tubman

Thank you so much to Phil and all the lovely ladies who worked so hard to make our meal at the hall such a success.

It was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. For those who did not turn up, you missed a treat.

Beryl's Bookworms -Sue Johns

This month we read Gillian Flynn's 'Gone Girl' - a dark, psychological thriller of the first order.

Set in post-recession Missouri the book opens with the husband Nick returning home to find his house has been disturbed and his wife, Amy, missing. There follows two narratives; Nick relating events as they unfold, an Amy speaking through her diary of the early years of their relationship. The two story lines begin to converge - and we were all shocked in the middle section when the truth begins to unfold. The ending is vertiginous and unpredictable, yet some felt it was unsatisfactory.

Flynn plays the reader with a flawless plot, resulting, most agreed, in a real page turner. The main characters were clearly psychopathic and sociopathic, and the relationship with each other and those close to them, we all agreed, was portrayed true to type. We did wonder about the sort of mind that dreams up such a twisted and downright nasty storyline!

The language was very 'American' and most felt, offensive - yet we had to agree this in itself lent to the mood and enhanced the storyline. The detrimental involvement of social media and reality TV was significant in the outcome, and this led to discussion on the future of criminal investigations and unbiased juries.

One of us felt the book was just too unpleasant to be enjoyable in any way. However, we did indeed mostly agree that this was a good, entertaining read and we scored an average of 4 out of 5, with one 5. And now we're all off to watch the film!

Next Month: 'The Lie' by Helen Dunmore, one of our favourite authors.

Pasty supper following the concert

Your Stars Tonight.

I am chewing on my sustainable organic oat flakes when I hear a dread incantation intoned by the steamed dieter. "Twixt moor and sea, still stands fair Ugborough in moss and stone." I groan inwardly knowing that she is girding her loins to edit another edition of the Ugborough Parish Newsletter. I tiptoe out the door into the darkened garden with gloomy foreboding that yet again the stars will be sealed off behind the clouds - for in truth "Ugborough nestling twixt moor and sea" is not conducive to star studded nights.

We were travelling back from Bognor Regis after a successfully signing up Gina'n'Paul to lead our 2015 sales drive at the prestigious bric a brac stall at the next Ugborough Fayre. We had set off for Ugborough just after sunset and Venus was shining bright in the cloudless Western sky - showing us the way home. But by the time we came over the top of Haldon Hill there were only fleeting glimpses of clear sky. It did not bode well for star gazing in Ugborough. But "Surprise! Surprise!" the sky was clear over Lutterburn Street. "Would it last?" - a quick check for Ugborough Beacon on the excellent Metoffice website (the 36 hour forecast on cloud cover always seems pretty accurate) looked promising. Another quick internet check on The Skyandtelescope website showed Jupiter's moons were having a busy night - Io disappearing as it crosses Jupiter's face and Europa eclipsed by Jupiter's shadow at 22.24 hours - and that was something I wanted to see.

That gave less than 30 minutes to swallow a sandwich, double wrap against the sub-zero frost and get the telescope operating. With minutes to spare I was ready, but the cloud decided to roll in from the coast and Jupiter and its 3 visible moons blinked in and out of view in the murk. Europa was some distance from Jupiter and then suddenly it was gone - completely obscured by Jupiter's shadow and dead on time. The seeing was crystal clear but I was irritated by a tiny jet black floater in my eye that kept appearing - and then I realised I was seeing the shadow of Io thrown onto Jupiter's surface

This was turning out to be a fabulous night for star gazers so I grabbed the binoculars hoping to spot Comet Lovejoy and it did not take long to find as a very slightly green haze almost directly overhead and on the very edge of naked eye visibility, {It should be still visible in Andromeda at the beginning of February}

By now it was wonderfully clear - just right for photographing Jupiter through the telescope- but then one o'clock struck and I suddenly realised it had been a long day. And anyway there is always tomorrow.

Of course I forgot - this is Ugborough - so tomorrow it rained.

SPORTS REPORT - Janner Motson

Youth Football Update- A mid-term progress report is due so that you can keep up-to-date with your favourite Uggies team.

At the top of the club, the U16s continue to struggle and have yet to get a win. They suffered from injuries early on and have yet to recover to a stable 13 player each week. This has meant a different back four every match and over-reliance on less experienced members of the squad. Coach Peter is working on it and I hope that some stability is found soon.

The U13s are doing very well with a squad of mainly U12s and have great spirit. They have not had many points, but they run teams close and have a well coordinated back four. They lack size and pace so scoring goals can be difficult but they are no push-over. The U12s share players with the U13s and are sitting 4th in their table. They lack consistency, but have plenty of talent so should finish strong.

The U10s were in the wrong division and suffered from loss of key players against some really good opposition; however, they are now where they should be and are unbeaten in the new division following some great performances. Although a little short of squad members they are a good unit and pass the ball well.

Last up are the U8s, who have done so well in a short time that they now compete in the first division, where they look comfortably at home. They have a new and able keeper and are learning their roles quickly. I saw them happy to try flicks and skills in recent games that bodes well for their future.

All this has been made possible by a committed coaching and management team that has 2 FA qualified Level 2 coaches, 3 Level 1 coaches, a goalkeeping coach, Treasurer, Chairman, Secretary, Welfare Officers, website organiser and supporting parents who run the line, referee, collect money and rise to the occasion when called. If you want to be involved come to the ICC astro every Saturday 9.30-11 a.m.

I have received 2 items from Ugborough residents about an unpleasant subject concerning inconsiderate dog owners. I am going to repeat the advice from Tracey Weaver, South Hams District Council Dog Warden on 01803 861117

The mornings and evenings are now darker, which means that we all need to be extra vigilant when we are exercising our pets. Please ensure that you are properly prepared for a stress free walk by having a torch so that you can see where your dog has fouled, and plenty of poo bags so that you can clear it away and dispose of it as required by law. (SHDC Dog Control Orders 2013) There is no excuse for a dog fouling anywhere in SHDC Towns, Villages or the surrounding fields.

Stream/drains at entrance to Higher Bowcombe Farm. Amanda Sneape

Most of you will be aware the drains around this area are very sensitive to becoming blocked with leaves etc., since we have been here we have tried, whenever possible, to keep them clear. However, we have recently noticed that black 'poo bags' are frequently the cause of the problem and would request that the person or persons who are throwing them into the stream and surrounding area could please stop doing so. When the drains become blocked the water cascades across our entrance and down the road, which, in freezing conditions, causes ice and a danger to everyone. Many thanks.

Storm drain in village Michael Bolton.

Somebody is walking a dog (or dogs) on the road from the village towards Toby Cross and when it relieves itself collects the result in non-degradable black plastic bags, and then pushes them into the storm water drains. WHY? The result that they eventually collect where the storm drain surfaces below Bank End and blocks the water from returning underground. This causes it to flow down the road creating considerable flooding of the road. Clearing the storm drain is a very unpleasant job so would the culprit please desist and take the offending bags home to dispose of them in the grey bin.

Ugborough Parish Council Clerk: Sarah Woodman 01364 661127

email: ugboroughpc@yahoo.co.uk Website: www.ugboroughparishcouncil.gov.uk

The Parish Council budget and precept was the major feature of the January Parish Council Meeting. The Parish Council is increasingly taking on responsibilities from the District Council, such as maintaining the Bittaford playground, and the projected expenditure has risen to reflect this. To make ends meet, the precept (Parish Council element of your Council Tax) will increase to £15000. The average Council Tax band will be paying £20.91 to Ugborough, which represents an increase of £1.22 since last year.

The Neighbourhood Development Plan progress has been well publicised through its recent leaflet distribution. After the two consultation events in January, further workshop is planned to produce the Interim Report. Follow the progress on the website (www.ugboroughplan.org), Facebook or Twitter - and get involved!

Planning applications Only one, for the change of use from shop to residential at the Post Office Stores, 5 Beacon Terrace, Bittaford, to which no objections were raised.

DCC Cllr Hosking was following up complaints about potholes, and is chasing up the grit bin we were promised at Lutterburn.

SHDC Cllr Holway reported on the pressures facing SHDC, including a reduced central Government grant, and the reduction in District Councillors at the next election. A meeting about the travellers proved disappointing, as progress was likely to be slow - although Cllr Holway advised that DCLG funding was available to buy a suitable site.

Dartmoor National Park is leading the way in promoting self-build housing opportunities under the government's 'Right to Build' initiative. The Vanguard Project on Dartmoor aims to identify:

Your Christmas Gifts.

Thanks to the generous donations of the congregations that attended the Christmas Services at St Peter's Ugborough, we were able to send £608 to The Children's Society.

It was wonderful to see around 400 people gathered in Ugborough Church to say our farewells and celebrate the life of our friend Shaun Andrews, who always looked on the bright side of life.

Our sincere sympathies to Mary, Sharon and all the family.

St. Peter's Church, Ugborough Harberton Vicarage

My dear Friends,

I am putting pen to paper, well - fingers to keyboard, to be accurate, in the wake of the atrocities in France and having been listening to a debate on whether the pen is mightier than the sword and whether free speech is a holy grail.

There are obvious things to say - that there can never be justification for the sorrow of revenge taken against a satirical magazine; that one's sympathies and prayers go to the relatives and friends of the victims and indeed to the whole French people that our security services deserve support as they strive to keep our population safe.

But there is also the major question about freedom - freedoms of every sort. You and I have the freedom to walk through these villages and country lanes with a real anxiety because other people are not free to attack us; you and I have the freedom to spend our money as we wish because there are curbs on democratic government to dictate every detail of life; you and I can eat food with reasonable confidence because we trust manufacturers to observe certain standards of hygiene and safety. In short, each freedom we enjoy is because others are not free to remove it from us.

More importantly, our freedom is granted us by the Creator. We are not robots, compelled to be good or to follow only one prescribed path - in learning, relationships, work, attitudes, recreation etc. etc. We have the dignity of choice and decision making.

But these freedoms also place a responsibility on us - to choose our path of life with care, to use our freedoms in a way that does not hurt others, to respect the different choices of others, to engage in debate about how society, business, public bodies, government and so on should conduct themselves.

We accept that we cannot control the world or put an end to much of the violence and abuse that goes on. But we can exert enormous influence on our families and friends and the areas of life in which we are involved - and that influence can have a ripple effect and reach a wider public than we imagine.

As Christians, known to be church-going people, our responsibility is greater: we let Christ and our fellow Christians down when we fall short of the ideals set before us by Jesus - of truth, love, tolerance, generosity, self-sacrifice and forgiveness and so on.

To keep our wills and intentions so motivated, we need to be in frequent and conscious touch with Jesus and our fellow Christians - principally in prayer, study and worship. If all of us who attended a Carol singing event around Christmas, in the warm glow of Yuletide, were to carry that enthusiasm through the other eleven months of the year and use our times of worship and fellowship each week, not just once in a while, to fuel our lives, we could make a real difference in combating evil with sheer godliness.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday - February 18th - not a bad time to start!!

Let's all make a real effort to come closer to God and goodness this year.

With love and prayers, Caroline.
